Benediction

As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

— Matthew 24:3 (ESV)

To us in America, the reflections of Armistice Day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service and with gratitude for the victory, both because of the thing from which it has freed us and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the council of the nations...

— President Woodrow Wilson
November, 1919

We extend welcome to all guests to our Meeting and ask that you please fill out one of the yellow cards found in the slot on the back of the pews.

It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.

It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us -- that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion -- that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain -- that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom -- and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

- Abraham Lincoln

You can help in any of several ways — building a bed, volunteering to deliver beds, collecting bedding or pillows, sewing quilted comforters, fund-raising, donating funds, or praying!
